

P-EBT & FNS SCAM WARNING: There have been reports of Food and Nutrition Services (FNS) and Pandemic -EBT (P-EBT) recipients receiving scam text messages and phone calls asking for personal information. For your protection do not reply or provide any personal information if you are contacted in this way and delete the message. FNS or P-EBT recipients should NEVER share social security numbers, bank information, EBT card numbers or personal identification numbers with people you don't know. Only provide personal information when you contact a state agency directly.

Those who are unsure about a request for FNS information should contact their local Department of Social Services (DSS). You can learn more about P-EBT at <https://ncdhhs.gov/PEBT>. #NCPEBT

AVOID P-EBT & FNS SCAMS

 Watch out for scam text messages and phone calls asking for personal information.

 For your protection, do not reply and delete the message.

 Only provide personal information when you contact a state agency directly.

 P-EBT or FNS recipients should never share personal information (social security numbers, bank information, EBT card numbers or personal identification numbers) with people you don't know.